

Board & Commission Openings

We welcome your interest in applying for the following volunteer positions. Citizen boards and commissions play an important role in advising the City Council in their legislative responsibility. Additional information on the boards is available on the city website at www.langleywa.org under What's New.

DEADLINE for applications: Friday, February 26th or until positions filled
Interviews with Mayor Paul Samuelson will be scheduled for the weeks of March 1st & 8th.

SUBMIT: letter of interest and volunteer application (attached) to:

Kathleen Landel
Special Assistant to the Mayor
P.O. Box 366, Langley WA 98260
assistant@langleywa.org

Historic Preservation Commission: One Position Available

- Reside in the City Langley or Island County (exceptions can be granted)
- Must have experience in identifying, evaluating and protecting historic resources within one of the following disciplines: architecture, architectural history, planning, building construction, conservation, landscape architecture, or related disciplines.

For questions on serving on the Historic Preservation Commission contact:

Larry Cort, Community Planning Director
(360) 221-4246 x12 or landuse@langleywa.org

Library Board: One Position Available

- City of Langley residents and non-residents with a demonstrated interest in the Langley Library (Langley residents encouraged to apply)

For questions on serving on the Library Board contact:

Debbie Mahler, Clerk/Treasurer
(360) 221-4246 x15 or clerk@langleywa.org

Park & Open Space Commission: One Position Available

- City of Langley resident with specialized skills related to parks, open space and trails development including such areas as recreation planning, land or parks development, natural resources or landscape architecture

For questions on serving on the Parks & Open Space Commission contact:

Fred Evander, Community Planner
(360) 221-4246 x25 or landuse2@langleywa.org