The Parks and Open Space Commission held a public open house, "Listening to the Land", from 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm at St. Hubert Church, 804 Third Street, Langley.

The public was welcomed and given a Self-Guided Tour Map of nine presentation boards covering the topics:

INTRODUCTION

1. The Basis for Parks & Open Space Planning

PARKS

2. Existing Parks and Natural Areas
3. Classification of Dedicated Parks and Open Space
4. Visiting Langley's Parks
5. Interest in Park Activities

OPEN SPACE

6. The Impact of Glaciers on Langley's Landscape
7. Existing Open Space
8. Corridors and Core Areas
9. Tools to Preserve Open Space

There was a Feedback Wall for the parks presentation boards and the open space presentation boards. Attendees wrote comments to key questions posted for each topic.

Commissioners and staff were available to answer questions and hear feedback.

Attendees were given the opportunity to fill out an evaluation form giving their feedback on the open house.

Kathleen Landel recorded the minutes for the meeting.
