

Island County COVID-19

Island County Public Health, WhidbeyHealth, and a variety of other community partners are working together to test a large number of Island County residents for COVID-19. Community-wide testing started Wednesday, May 13, 2020.

Due to an overwhelming response to the testing survey, Island County will open COVID-19 testing on Monday, May 18 to all Island County residents 18 years of age or older, regardless of survey completion or pre-registration status. There will be no out-of-pocket cost for this viral PCR test, but insurance information will be collected if available. Please bring identification to be tested. Below are the testing dates, locations, and hours.

DATE LOCATION HOURS

MONDAY, MAY 18 Oak Harbor High School 11am – 7pm

TUESDAY, MAY 19 Oak Harbor High School 11am – 7pm

WEDNESDAY, MAY 20 Oak Harbor High School 11am – 7pm

WEDNESDAY, MAY 20 Utsalady Elementary, Camano Island 3pm – 8pm

THURSDAY, MAY 21 South Whidbey High School 11am – 7pm

Governor Inslee recently outlined his Safe Start plan to reopen Washington State, which includes better access to testing and improved data on the number of people with COVID-19. Community-wide testing is one vital piece of reopening Island County and Washington State.
