MEMO TO: City Council
FROM: Michael Davolio, AICP
SUBJECT: Proposal for Mural
DATE: June 11, 2015

The Langley Arts Commission has received an unsolicited proposal for the placement of a 4' x 8' mural, to be placed on the west exterior wall of the Fire House, facing the Braeburn Restaurant. A full description of the proposal is attached.

At their meeting on June 11, 2015, the Arts Commission voted unanimously to forward this proposal to the City Council, with the recommendation that the Council approve the proposal.

There is no cost to the City to implement this proposal, with the potential that the City would receive a commission if the mural is sold.

c: Mayor Fred McCarthy
   Frank Rose, Chair, Langley Arts Commission
Dear Arts Commission members,

I am submitting to the Langley Arts Commission a drawing to be considered for mounting a 4x8 foot mural on the exterior wall of the firehouse, across from the Braeburn restaurant. It is my hope that my mural will add some interest and excitement to the existing alleyway, and to the city of Langley! The mural will be painted using a weatherproof house paint. If approved I would like thirty days to produce the painting.

Installation will require mounting on a 4x8.5 foot plywood “canvas” to the existing stonewall using metal clips. I would like to have my work displayed for one year along with my name, a brief description and price. If sold I will give 20% of the sales price to the City of Langley.

If my drawing is accepted I will provide a more detailed sketch, showing how the work will be attached to the firehouse wall.

Thank you for reading my request! I would be pleased to make a presentation to the Arts Commission.

Sincerely,

Emily Moore

My name is Emily, I am a Washington resident looking for creative opportunities as an emerging artist. Most of my education has been artistically approached through high school and internships, particularly in visual art. My mediums of choice are house paints and markers. I also enjoy using acrylics, oils and spray paint.

2012

Warehouse 21- Mural artist/ Volunteer. Outdoor graffiti artist and indoor mural artist.

At Warehouse 21, a teen art center in Santa Fe, New Mexico, I painted frequently on the free graffiti wall until starting mural art in the centers community theater.

2013

SWHS- Mural artist

During my junior year of High School I used house paints to create a very large mural in the studio for Don Wodjenski.

2014

Clothing design/ Langley farmers market T shirt booth

With the help of local artists Carley Shwoerer and Peggy Juve I was able to put my designs onto organic T-shirts and sell them at local artist markets.

2014

Deck The Doors- Window artist/ decorator for Wander on Whidbey

2015

Sticker design

With the help of the Sound Business Center, I have been putting my artwork on vinyl. Together we create wonderful, colorful stickers that I sell on Etsy and around town.

This is my latest mural, made possible by Don Wodjenski!

The painting lives in the upper level of South Whidbey High School, Inside a loft that sits vacant above a huge art studio. Sadly, the painting is rarely seen because of the room only being used for storage.

Nevertheless I loved the experience and am eternally grateful to Don who provided me with the wall and the house paints I used. To make the painting I used only primary colors and mixed on the wall. There was no sketching done before hand, I just wanted to go for it and see what the result would be.

It is a surprise that letters appeared, nor is it a surprise that a female face emerged. These are two of my favorite things to draw!
