

Comments from Design Langley

Name	Important issues	Action	What should be preserved?	Action	What should change?	Action	Other comments	Action
Mary Goolsby	Maintain Langley's quiet charm	Addressed in LU-3.6, LU-5.5, LU-8.3, LU-10, H-2 & related policies, T-2, POS-2, ED-3, ED-5	Preserve Langley's areas of historical interest including downtown buildings and waterfront	Addressed in LU-10 and related policies, LU-3.6	Encourage the provision of some things, which are lacking; for example, a pharmacy and a hardware store.	Beyond city's scope	Noise pollution is not adequately addressed, particularly amplified music	Code 18.22.095 B & 8.10.030
Christy Korrow	Earthquake preparedness	Island County is responsible for emergency preparedness in partnership with the city.	Fossik Farm	In county. Owners requested it be designated as PGA	Partnership with building owners downtown in order to fill retail space with affordable rents for small business owners.	Beyond city's scope
	Local food security including fresh water supply	Urban Ag LU-8.18, POS-7 & related policies, S-5.2	Fresh water supply	UCF-6 & related policies, UCF-8 & related policies, UCF-9-1	Create low income and agricultural water rate discounts	seniors. Urban Ag LU-8.18, POS-7 & related policies, S-5.2
	High utility costs (water & sewer)	LU-7.3	Remaining open space and agricultural land		Plastic bag ban	Not addressed.
	Lack of young families	ED-1, ED-9, S-1	Rural character especially north of Al Anderson	Rural character not specifically mentioned. Small town character is.	Solar panels on public buildings	city hall but roof can't accommodate panels
	Downtown vacancy		Views of the water and access along 1 st street	ED-6, POS-3.2
	Rising housing cost		Useless Bay Coffee Company	Private business
John Stark	Stormwater storage and reuse needs to occur	Stormwater/groundwater/aquifer addressed in LU-8.12, UCF-5.3b, UCF-6.8, s-7.1 AND s-6.2	Building preservation needs to be balanced with the cost implications of them being renovated when they should be torn down in order for them to be occupied	Addressed in LMC 18.16.110	Long term stable well paid jobs. Services for diverse community	ED-1, ED-9, S-1
Edith Hall	A hospital in the area	Beyond the city's scope	Our waterfront	POS-6 & related policies, T-13 & related policies, POS-5.5, ED-5, ED-6	Increased beach access	POS-5.5, POS-6 & related policies
	A Boeing Employees CU	Beyond the city's scope						