RECOGNITION/APPRECIATION
Mayor Callison presented the Outstanding Wastewater Treatment Plant Award under the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System from the Department of Ecology to Randi Perry and Rob Durr, our treatment plant operators. This is the tenth year in a row Langley has won this distinction. Mayor presented an excellence award to Dominique Emerson for her work with the PAB, the Council and the Port. Ursula Shoudy was also awarded for her work with the Chamber and the Rod and Gun Club fundraiser to buy a generator for an emergency shelter.

COMMISSION AND BOARD REPORTS
Planning Advisory Board – semi-annual report. Christy Korrow, Chairman, reported that the last six months has been a busy time for the board. They have spent time reviewing board duties, ethics and city codes, toured the sewer treatment plant and are doing self-education and review regarding roles, GMA, etc. Christy thanked Brigid Reynolds for all her support and training to the board. The affordable housing forum went well and helped the PAB define their focus. Options for infill, internal conversions of existing homes, ADUs, tiny houses, multi-family housing in single family zones, environmental impacts, lack of sewer throughout city were discussed. Next year’s agenda includes another possible housing forum, Dark Sky lighting discussions and other issues. There has been none to very little public attendance at most meetings.

PUBLIC HEARING – 2017 Preliminary Budget
Mayor Callison opened the public hearing at 5:51 PM. Debbie Mahler replaced a few pages of the budget with minor corrections. The budget totals $6,655,931. The General fund totals $1,749,184. Rene Neff asked for several clarifications and Debbie answered other questions. The hearing was closed at 6:02 PM.

CITIZEN COMMENTS
Robin Black thanked Thomas Gill for running the trivia night for Chamber’s annual member meeting. A resident asked about designating Langley as a sanctuary city, and taking a moral stand. She said our Country is not looking good, and she is personally frightened. She asked how to proceed? Kris Korrow wants to start some type of movement to collect donations for solar panels on city hall, as part of his commitment to climate change. Karen Bolstad asked about making Langley a sanctuary city. She stated that she belongs to the “Pantsuit Nation”, a Group started to speak about activist movements.

STAFF REPORTS

Community Planning – Brigid Reynolds reported that she is a member of Island County Housing Board, grant disbursement requests were worked on, funding allocated. There were some recent training sessions put on by Island County on planning issues, GMA, planning board responsibilities. She and several members of the PAB attended. The Doghouse has submitted an application, and she is working with them to move it forward. Brigid attended an Island County GIS meeting on Friday, which was helpful in developing our own system. A meeting was held at City Hall around tourist accommodations, to provide information on rules and regulations and the approval process. She is developing a useful brochure on these issues. She got some good feedback on needed changes to the municipal code. She has a couple applications for lot line adjustments. There is no Design Review Board meeting this month as they have no applications. The PAB did a follow up discussion on the housing meeting.

Public Works – Stan Berryman reported he has grant awards for street projects over the next four years. Federal funding. The arborist’s report on the Boy & Dog tree states that it cannot be saved. It is damaging the pavement and the building. It will be removed and replaced with something more appropriate. Stan is working with the Star Store Basics on their water flooding issue. Star Store Basics had water damage to its lower level. It has happened since 2nd Street was completed. Stan has ordered sharps containers for the public restrooms and sharrows for streets.

Police – Chief Marks has been doing regular foot patrols at Seawall Park, one needle was found under the Doghouse. The Department is working on meeting all their training requirements, and working on vehicle maintenance. Mason, our newest officer is still in field training until the end of the year.

Finance – Debbie Mahler passed out revenue and expenditure reports for October and monthly revenue graphs. Most revenues are coming in better than predicted and expenditures are under budget. Debbie reported that she is on vacation the rest of the week and will be back on Monday. She also stated that a public hearing on the final budget is scheduled for the next meeting on December 5th.

MAYOR’S REPORT

Mayor Callison thanked everyone for the opportunity he has been given to serve the community. He also reported that he attended the November 9th annual meeting of the Langley Chamber of Commerce. On the 17th he received notice of approval of $90,000 small capital project funding from Rural County Economic Development Grants (RCEDG) – wayfinding signs, access improvements to Seawall Park, drip irrigation for pots and planters, etc. The alternative accommodations community meeting went well. The City will put together a flow chart on regulations, etc. Today he met with the Whidbey/Camano film permitting group. We are the only local community with a filming ordinance, which is being used as a model for the rest of the county. The Mayor also visited with the Victoria Clipper Company today; the captain, 2 people from products, and 2 from sales and marketing. They went to Whale Center, Glass shop, etc. They were very impressed and will hopefully be including stops in Langley on their boat cruises.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS
Seawall Park – no discussion tonight. Community meeting December 21st on ways to discourage illegal behavior at the Park. Jim Sundberg commented that he has been down to the park and it is being well maintained and upgraded, and he thanked public works.

NEW BUSINESS

MOTION: To bring to a first reading, Resolution 784 amending the Municipal Code Fee Schedule regarding utility rates. Motion - Emerson, 2nd - Shoudy. Motion was approved unanimously.

Discussion of Resolution of Community Unity and Citizen Safety. Mayor Callison has received a number of emails from citizens since the recent federal election asking for a resolution reinforcing Langley’s view of equality, safety, and for actual sanctuary. He has read resolutions from other cities that speak of safety for all groups of people and minorities, inclusive, diverse and welcoming, embrace all marginalized groups. A resident named Glenn asked the City get feedback from people we are trying to protect, how do you involve these people? He suggested we put a call out to residents for feedback. Some people are asking for Langley to become an actual Sanctuary city, because many kids at local schools are worried about their families being deported. The City will do a little research and make a recommendation to Council.

Frank Rose, Chairman of the Arts Commission, stated that 3 new sculptures are going in on 2nd Street and the post office property. The Arts Commission has approved them and have asked for approval by the Council.

MOTION: To approve the new sculptures as recommended by the Arts Commission. Motion - Allen, 2nd - Neff. Motion carried unanimously.

COUNCIL REPORTS

Ursula Shoudy reported that Saturday the 26th of November will be the lighting of Langley. Santa will be here, hot cocoa and cider will be provided. She attended the annual Chamber retreat; they talked about what was helpful and not in 2016 and the plan for 2017. December 3rd is the holiday parade in Langley. Ursula thinks it would be nice to have a city group in the parade. Everyone is to meet at the bus barn at 10:30 AM. Applications are available at visitlangley.com/parade. 17th of December is the give-away for $1,000 from Whidbey Island Bank and gift baskets. Dominique Emerson attended the last Port meeting. Dock work at Possession Point is underway. The Clinton dock project for a seasonal walkway for the disabled is also underway. The Port is working on reconfiguring parking for vans. The Mukilteo parking issue is still ongoing. In Langley at the harbor, the new area of land the Port purchased will be striped for parking. Concerning the Fairgrounds, there was a presentation by a group that wants to expand the commercial kitchen and discussion of what that will take. The Port is looking for businesses that can utilize the fairgrounds for their businesses 11 months of the year. Main Street had a presentation on Dark Sky’s. She is hoping they can give Langley a presentation also.

Bruce Allen is working to get the HUB back open by the first of the year. They received a $5,000 donation from Rite Aid and had a successful Salmon Dinner fundraiser. Rene Neff attended the Main Street meeting. They are doing the “Deck the Doors” competition for merchants and the Sea float scramble in January. Rene reported that she attended the Ethics training here at City Hall for the Council and that it was very helpful. The Cemetery Board doing investigations and research on changing the way the City does business. The founder of Island Shakespeare Theater is resigning. They plan to dedicate the stage to her. She has been mentoring Alena Hodges who will become the artistic director. They are excited about the new season. Thomas Gill thanked the Chamber, trivia night was very fun.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:26 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Debbie L. Mahler, Director of Finance/Clerk
